- There were 191 riders this year: 70 GasGas riders, 50 Sherco's, 33 Betas, 21 on Montesa, 15 on Scorpa, and 2 undeclared
- California fronted 32 riders, Colorado was second with 18, New Mexico had 15 riders, 10 from Michigan, and Texas had 8.
- The United States' Trial des Nations team needs YOUR support! <http://www.usatdn.org>
The new team manager, Kip Webb (Cody's dad) is continuing the excellent organization and support of past manager Ted Gansberger. However, for last year's event on the Isle of Man (where the USA team had their highest placing ever in the "World Championship" class – as opposed to the less competitive "International Trophy" division) our team riders had to come up with a substantial amount of their own money to represent the USA. Our team is very strong and very competitive and they're close to being able to compete at the highest levels in this storied event. The 2008 event will be in Andorra (between Spain and France) and fielding our team requires everyone's support.

There are several ways to send money:

1. Go to the United States' Trial des Nations team web site: <http://www.usatdn.org> and click on the "Support our Team" tab. This is an easy way to show your support through a donation via PayPal (no, you don't have to have a PayPal account to use this...)
 2. The Ryan Young web site: <http://www.rypusa.com> has the TdN fund-raiser photo CD full of pictures by Will Ibsen's dad, Bill. On the RYP web site, enter AACVD42 in the SEARCH box, or just scroll down on the main page to TDN Fundraiser. This is really good stuff.
 3. Or, you can send checks directly to:
 - TDN-USA
P.O. Box 913
Boulder Creek, CA 95006
 4. You can also email the new TdN team manager directly at kip.webb@gcinc.com to find other ways to help.
