- ♦ Tom Batchelor posts the following from the 2009 Hot Dog Trial at Red River M/C Park:

Conditions: MONSOON

We arrived Thursday afternoon to light showers but very acceptable riding conditions. Friday had light intermittent showers, but riding conditions were still very good. Saturday morning was also very good with light showers lasting several minutes each but not changing the conditions.

Saturday at 2 pm CTS, everything turned to s_ _ t

Thirteen very dedicated and much appreciated trials riders braved the consistent rain showers and rode the event.

The rain persisted. Sunday morning had not improved, but nine little Indians remained and rode Sunday morning as well.

Highlight of the weekend: The fellowship of family and friends at the hot dog and burger supper on Saturday evening. The beer didn't hurt either.

Our most sincere and grateful thanks to those in attendance. On behalf of the NTTA, Tom and Vicky Batchelor THANK YOU very much!
